

'A Network of Security' in Europe

The National Association of Magistrates – Salerno District Section, the Italian Postal Police and the Giffoni Experience Autonomous Body within the project “A Network of Security”, together with the Jean Monnet Chair “Promoting Public Awareness on Enlargement, EU Values and the Western Balkans' Accession” (EUALWEB), at the Department of Legal Sciences (DSG), University of Salerno, in the person of the Chair Holder, Prof. Teresa Russo, within the framework of the Law Clinic EU Cooperation on Justice and Home Affairs: Insights, and the Bar Association of Salerno, have developed the project “A Network of Security” in Europe at the University of Salerno.

The goal of the project is to promote, on an international level, a digital education that respects people’s fundamental rights, highlighting, particularly for younger generations, the criminal implications of social network use and fostering the exchange of best practices and skills in the field of criminal judicial cooperation between operators.
