

EUVALWEB

SECOND EDITION

DRAFT PROGRAMME

IDENTITY

Identity of the Chair

Co-funded by the European Union, the Jean Monnet Chair “Promoting Public Awareness on Enlargement Policy, EU Values and the Western Balkans’ Accession” (EUVALWEB) aims to promote the study of EU law among students, academics, practitioners and civil society. The aim is to highlight and explain the important impact that the enlargement policy has in the construction of EU identity based on its founding values, as well as the strategy adopted towards the Western Balkans, in particular in the field of Justice and Home Affairs (JHA) cooperation, which is at the core of the legal system of the EU and its Member States, even beyond the territory of the EU.

The EUVALWEB Chair enjoys the support of Albanian, Bosnian, Macedonian, Montenegrin and Serbian universities, as well as civil society and forensic associations that are directly involved in its activities, and the contribution of national and international experts. It is also sponsored by the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, which shares its objectives.

The Chair’s research activity is conducted within the EUVALWEB Legal Observatory in the following thematic areas: Cross-Border Security (Migration and Asylum Management); Combating Transnational Crime; Police and Judicial Cooperation; Promotion and Protection of EU Values and Fundamental Rights.
